

The parliamentary tradition

3. Find and fix!

The table contains three incorrect statements relating to Daniel O’Connell and the parliamentary tradition. Find the incorrect statements and fix them using the spaces provided.

Highlight the three incorrect statements.

O’Connell was born near Caherciveen in County Kerry.	To fund the Catholic Association, its members paid at least one penny a month. This was called the Catholic rent.	He set up the Catholic Association to campaign for repeal of the Act of Union (1800).
Catholic Emancipation was achieved when the government passed the Act of Union (1800).	He believed that the best way to achieve political change was by using violent methods.	He helped pass the Slavery Abolition Act (1833).

Fix the three incorrect statements.

