

Name: _____ Score: _____

19 Multiple choice questions

Definition 1 of 19

Ordered the Plantation of Laois and Offaly, 1557.

- Queen Elizabeth I
- Queen Mary
- Lord Deputy
- King James I

Definition 2 of 19

A group of Irish people descended from the ancient people of Ireland.

- Gaelic Irish
- Anglo-Irish
- Anglo-Normans
- Identity

Definition 3 of 19

A defensive stone wall around a house or castle.

- Lordship of Ireland
- Bawn
- The Pale
- Black rent

Definition 4 of 19

Belonging to a group of people who share a common history and way of life.

- Identity
- Anglo-Irish
- Gaelic Irish
- Anglo-Normans

Definition 5 of 19

English soldiers and government officials who served in the Nine Years' War. They were rewarded with land in the Ulster Plantation.

- Lord Deputy
- Servitors
- Undertakers
- Queen Mary

Definition 6 of 19

Protection money paid by Palesmen to Gaelic chiefs.

- Lordship of Ireland
- Bawn
- Black rent
- The Pale

Definition 7 of 19

The area within and around Dublin where English rule was at its strongest.

- Lordship of Ireland
- Black rent
- The Pale
- Protestant Ascendancy

Definition

8 of 19

A failed rebellion (1593-1603) against English rule in Ireland. It was led by Hugh O'Neill, Earl of Tyrone.

- Anglo-Irish
- Anglo-Normans
- Nine Years' War
- Flight of the Earls

Definition

9 of 19

Ordered the Plantation of Ulster, 1609.

- Queen Mary
- Queen Elizabeth I
- King James I
- Lord Deputy

Definition

10 of 19

English and Scottish settlers who came to Ireland during the Plantations.

- Undertakers
- Queen Mary
- Servitors
- Lord Deputy

Definition

11 of 19

The Protestant ruling class in Ireland from the period after Cromwell's conquest in the 1650s. They owned most of the land and controlled the parliament in Dublin.

- Lordship of Ireland
- The Pale
- Protestant Ascendancy
- Black rent

Definition

12 of 19

The English Crown's highest representative in Ireland.

- Undertakers
- Lord Deputy
- King James I
- Queen Mary

Definition

13 of 19

Ordered the Plantation of Munster, 1586.

- Undertakers
- Queen Mary
- King James I
- Queen Elizabeth I

A policy of control that involved removing disloyal people from an area of land and replacing them with loyal planters (settlers).

- Black rent
- The Pale
- Surrender and Regrant
- Plantation

Parts of Ireland that accepted the rule of the English Crown.

- Black rent
- Lordship of Ireland
- Protestant Ascendancy
- The Pale

A policy of control that avoided warfare. A Gaelic chief surrendered his land to the English Crown. The Crown regranted the land back to the chief in return for a promise of loyalty.

- Surrender and Regrant
- Plantation
- Lordship of Ireland
- Protestant Ascendancy

The event in 1607 when Hugh O'Neill and other Ulster chiefs left Ireland.

- Flight of the Earls
- Lord Deputy
- Undertakers
- Nine Years' War

A group of English people descended from the Normans who invaded Ireland in the twelfth century. They spoke English and followed English common law.

- Identity
- Anglo-Irish
- Anglo-Normans
- Gaelic Irish

A group of people descended from the Anglo-Normans. Most had adopted the Gaelic Irish way of life by the 1500s.

- Anglo-Normans
- Anglo-Irish
- Identity
- Gaelic Irish