

The Ulster Plantation, 1609

Word Bank

Before plantation	Planning and implementation
Identity                      Brehon law                      Bartering economy                      Pastoral (cattle) farming                      O'Neills of Tyrone and O'Donnells of Donegal                      Adventurers                      Nine Years' War                      Battle of Kinsale                      Treaty of Mellifont                      Flight of the Earls                      Plantation	King James I                      Spread Protestantism                      Six counties                      Crown land                      Church land                      London companies                      English and Scottish undertakers                      Bawn                      Servitors                      Loyal Irish
Results	Growth of towns
English language                      Common law                      Money economy                      Anglican churches                      Presbyterian churches                      Arable (crop) farming                      Growth of towns e.g. Coleraine                      Legacy of resentment                      1641 Rebellion	Commissioners                      Superintendents                      The Diamond                      Grid pattern                      Defensive walls e.g. Londonderry                      Corporate towns                      Gaols and schools                      Centres of trade